Mark Elsasser

Mark,

You're such a weird person
I don't know where to start.
We had great times in school so far.
Remember going to Sioux City. You and Todd are so PARANOID! about women drivers. It's too bad some people get bushwacked, too, especially when they tell everyone where their going. That car was sure bouncing.
Be good and don't run into dump gates.

Good Luck and God Bless

Love,

Jeffery

Many things occurred in the world this year. Since this was election year, Ronald Reagan replaced Jimmy Carter as our new President of the United States.

Inauguration day will be well remembered. Not only for the swearing in of our new President but this was the day the American hostages were released from Iran after their 444 day captivity.

On March 30, 1981 John Warnock Hinckley Jr. made an assassination attempt on President Reagan's life. Fortunately, after receiving several bullet wounds, he made a fast recovery.

Another important event this year was the touchdown of the space shuttle Columbia at Edwards Air Force Base after completing a 6½ hour mission in space. The astronauts aboard were John Young and Robert Crippen.

In Vatican City on May 13, Pope John Paul II was shot and seriously wounded by a gunman, Mehmet Ali Agca.

These events and many others will always be a part of our high school memories.

The 1980-81 school year will be well remembered by many things. "Gator" seemed to be the popular word. We don't really know how it got started but it is definitely Bancroft.

UNO was a favorite past time during noon hours along with ping-pong, that is until the Senior boys kind of "lost" the ping-pong balls.

At Christmas time the main attraction was Mrs. Sundquist's Christmas tree. It was decorated with everything from tin foil to cookies. But it got us all into the spirit of Christmas.

JUNIORS

The Junior's year began with a slave auction, which was their big money-making project. Brian Sorensen was sold for the highest amount of $100. All together a total of $900 was raised. The money was used to sponsor the Junior-Senior Prom.

Another highlight of their year was attending County Government Day, where they all learned about different county offices.

Someone once said, "It doesn't matter if you win or lose; it's how you play the game." The Bancroft '80-'81 basketball season proved just that. At times, wins were few and far between, but the players on the floor never seemed to give up. Like any team, help from the bench was greatly appreciated. At the end of the season, Crysti Lutjen and Jill Samuelson received All-Conference honorable mention honors.

Events

"The Homecoming" was this year's theme. The Pep Club sponsored Spirit Week and had a Pep Rally-Bonfire Wednesday night. Losing to Allen with a score of 7-12 was a disappointment. After the game there was a dance with music provided by K & K Sound. The dance was cut short by an electrical storm which blew out all the lights in the town. All in all Homecoming was a very exciting week even though it ended with a disappointment.

POEM TO THE SENIORS

Another Prom is here
To some this brings a joyous smile
To others brings a
For four years they have tread
From dawn to setting sun
But now the path gets steeper
And the climb has just begun
We're very glad to know you
We miss you when you're gone

"Sometimes a Fantasy" was the theme chosen for the Jr-Sr Prom which was held on May 2, 1981.

The decorating of the gym, got off to a rocky start as the waterfall and pond leaked and warped the floor making it necessary to take it out and start all over again early Saturday morning.

The theme was carried out in the colors of pastel blue, green, yellow, and pink.

A meal of Italian food was served at the banquet by Ron D., Teresa E., Joe K., Renee M., Randy B., Teresa B. Mark E., and Renee A.

Mr. Claire Wiltse was the guest speaker at the Prom banquet.

Music for the dance was provided by D.J. & Associates. Everyone attending the Jr-Sr Prom had a very memorable evening.

"Senior Sneak 1981"

On May 8, 26 "tattered seniors" boarded the chartered bus along with our four sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Canarsky and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Witt all bound for Des Moines, Iowa. Our first stop was the Botanical Center where there was a variety of plants from banana trees to a 10 foot cactus

Our next stop, after a difficult time of finding it, was the Anderson-Erickson Dairy. Everyone now knows where milk comes from!

We entered our motel at 3:30 Friday afternoon for a fun night of "relaxation." Everyone entered the swimming area where a hot tub served as an 18 person pile up.

A dinner was put on for the seniors in honor of Jim's birthday where a surprise birthday cake was served. That night some of us went swimming, which was quite an experience in itself, while others "relaxed in their rooms." During the evening some of us anxiously awaited a 20 inch pizza which took 1½ hours to come.

Saturday brought us to a day at Adventureland where everyone enjoyed themselves despite the 2 hours lack of electricity. At 6:00 we all boarded the bus finding to everyone's surprise six new passengers - "all dogs."

On the way home we stopped at Happy Chef for supper.

The bus ride home was a most memorable time for all, even the stops on the long road home!

Sneak Day 1981 was a great success for everyone!

Mark,

Well you're gonna be a big senior. Don't let too many of the freshmen! Ok, so I passed out once. It's better than falling asleep. (Says) Anne said understood we've got you sleep. We've been to quite a few parties and I hope we can go to all next - without me getting in trouble. Also after Halloween II when we saw Jesus? It was pretty weird for awhile, in at least until I found out who it really was. Well I can't really be mad at you for funny marks because you've been pretty good about it. Don't remember too much about graduation, but I heard it was fun. Then there's the time we went to Macy and stole that dog. Boy that was fun! Keep partying as long as it's with me! Good luck + stay

Wild + Crazy
because I like you that way.
